

TRANSFORMATION LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

Agenda

Wednesday / 1.14

- 9:00 a.m. Meet at Samford University
- 9:30 a.m. Bus Leaves for Innovation Depot
- 11:00 a.m. Return to Samford; Review of Visit to Innovation Depot
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch
- 1:00 p.m. Continue Review of Innovation Depot
- 2:00 p.m. Alabama Transformation Leadership Academy: A Future Orientation and Defining Next Steps
- 3:00 p.m. Feedback and Adjourn

ADVANCE READING

Leading for Learning: How to Transform Schools into Learning Organizations

- Chapter 8—“Restoring Civic Capacity and Building Social Capital: Two Keys to School Transformation”
- Chapter 13—“Engaging the Heart and Recapturing Our Heritage”

KEY CONCEPTS

- Entrepreneurship
- Civic Capacity and Social Capital
- Developing a Marketing Mentality

GUIDING QUESTIONS

- What lessons might educational leaders gain from exploring Innovation Depot’s headquarters and its core business?
- Why is entrepreneurship important for today’s superintendents?
- How does Innovation Depot generate civic capacity and use social capital to engage the broader community?
- How can educational leaders become marketers of ideas about how schools should be organized in order to achieve the ends they need to achieve?